

A colorful illustration of a casino building. The building is a multi-story structure with a light-colored facade and many windows. A large sign on the roof reads "CASINO". In the foreground, there is a glass-enclosed entrance with a curved roof supported by dark pillars. The scene is surrounded by lush green trees and foliage, with a blue sky in the background.

A watercolor illustration of a golfer in mid-swing on a green, with trees and mountains in the background. The golfer is wearing a light blue shirt and dark pants. The scene is set on a lush green golf course with several large, leafy trees in the mid-ground and a range of blue mountains in the background under a light blue sky. The style is soft and painterly, typical of watercolor art.

